U.S. Strikes Iran After Drone Attack on Cargo Ship in Strait of Hormuz — NBC News / Al Jazeera

~18h ago · Middle East

Iran launched drones at vessels in the Strait of Hormuz, with one striking a Singapore-flagged cargo ship and violating a ceasefire memorandum signed just one week earlier. The U.S. responded by hitting Iranian missile and drone storage sites and coastal radar installations — the most dangerous escalation between the two nations since their brief war began.

Venezuela Earthquake Death Toll Reaches 920 as Nation Declares Emergency — NPR / ABC News

~36h ago · Latin America

Twin magnitude-7.5 and 7.2 earthquakes struck northwestern Venezuela on June 24, killing at least 920 people, injuring over 4,500, and leaving 50,000 missing — the country's deadliest seismic event in more than a century. Acting President Delcy Rodríguez declared a national state of emergency as international rescue teams from Mexico, El Salvador, and the Dominican Republic began arriving.

Rubio Announces U.S.-Brokered Israel-Lebanon Framework Peace Deal — CNBC / Al Jazeera

~12h ago · Middle East

Secretary of State Marco Rubio unveiled a trilateral framework agreement signed by the U.S., Israel, and Lebanon in Washington, calling for Hezbollah to disarm and withdraw from southern Lebanon through a structured, U.S.-facilitated process. The deal marks a significant diplomatic step, but Hezbollah — not party to the agreement — has already rejected it as "gratuitous concessions."

Tech Stocks Drag Markets as AI Cost Fears and Consumer Gloom Mount — Charles Schwab / CNN
