SpaceX Begins Nasdaq Trading in Record-Breaking $75 Billion IPO — NPR / Bloomberg / Axios

~12h ago · Markets

Elon Musk's SpaceX priced 555 million shares at $135 each, raising $75 billion — nearly three times Saudi Aramco's 2019 record — and began trading today under ticker SPCX at a $1.75 trillion valuation. The listing is the first of a trio of anticipated AI mega-IPOs, with OpenAI and Anthropic also having filed SEC paperwork for their own debuts.

Trump Claims Iran War Has Ended; Tehran Disputes Any Final Deal — Axios / Sunday Guardian Live

~6h ago · Geopolitics

President Trump posted on Truth Social that 'the war with Iran has ended today' and that Iran agreed never to pursue a nuclear weapon, suggesting a signing ceremony in Europe is imminent. Iran's foreign ministry denied any finalized agreement, calling reports 'speculative,' leaving the status of a reported 60-day memorandum of understanding unresolved.

World Bank Cuts 2026 Global Growth Forecast to Post-Pandemic Low of 2.5% — Reuters / Investing.com

~18h ago · Economy

The World Bank slashed its 2026 global growth forecast to 2.5% — the weakest since the COVID pandemic — citing energy price spikes and financial stress caused by the Iran war. In a severe downside scenario the bank warned growth could collapse to 1.3%, with developing economies and the Middle East region hit hardest.

~20h ago · World Events

The most-watched sporting event in history opened on June 11 with matches spread across 16 cities in the United States, Mexico, and Canada — the first World Cup jointly hosted by three nations. Mexico defeated South Africa 2-0 in the tournament opener, with South Korea also claiming a win on day one.

Second Night of Anti-Immigrant Violence Erupts in Belfast — Morning Star / Foreign Exchanges

~22h ago · Europe

Protesters set fires and hurled bricks and bottles at police in Belfast for a second consecutive night after a stabbing triggered a wave of anti-immigrant unrest in Northern Ireland. The riots drew comparisons to the 2024 Southport riots in England and have raised alarm about the spread of far-right mobilisation across the UK.
