

Morning Headlines — Saturday, 13 June 2026

A potential US-Iran peace deal dominates the day as diplomatic breakthroughs and clean-energy milestones round out a consequential Friday.

top 5 · last 24 hours

Pakistan declares 'final, agreed text' of US-Iran peace deal reached as US downs Iranian drones —

CBS News / ABC News

~12h ago · Middle East

Pakistan's prime minister announced that negotiators have agreed on a final text to end the US-Iran war that began in February 2026, with Iran committing to never develop nuclear weapons in exchange for sanctions relief and the reopening of the Strait of Hormuz; US forces shot down multiple Iranian attack drones in the same hours, underscoring the fragility of the moment.

EU unblocks Ukraine and Moldova membership talks after Hungary drops veto — Euronews / The

Washington Post

~20h ago · Europe

EU ambassadors unanimously agreed to open the first cluster of accession negotiations with Ukraine and Moldova, with formal talks set for June 15 in Luxembourg; the breakthrough follows Hungary lifting its two-year veto after Kyiv agreed to a minority-rights action plan, marking the most significant step yet toward Ukraine's eventual EU membership.

World's first large-scale hydrogen engine feeds electricity into a national grid — Euronews

~6h ago · Technology / Energy

A pure-hydrogen combustion engine built by Finland's Wärtsilä successfully supplied power to Spain's national grid — a world first for large-scale hydrogen power generation — demonstrating a potential solution to the intermittency problem that has limited renewable energy expansion.

Oil falls toward $85 on Iran deal hopes; equities gain ahead of first Warsh Fed decision — Charles

Schwab / Bloomberg

~8h ago · Markets

Crude oil dropped roughly 2% as traders priced in an imminent reopening of the Strait of Hormuz; global equity markets extended gains on the same optimism ahead of Wednesday's Federal Reserve rate decision, the first chaired by new Chair Kevin Warsh, where a rate increase is widely expected after last week's stronger-than-expected jobs report.

Poland's F-35 'Hussarz' jets officially enter service with ceremonial flyover of major cities — Euronews

~24h ago · Defense / NATO

Poland formally commissioned its first three F-35A stealth fighters at Łask Air Base, followed by a flypast over Warsaw, Gdańsk, Kraków, and Łódź; the jets, nicknamed 'Hussarz,' are part of a 32-aircraft, $4.6 billion order and mark a major step in reinforcing NATO's eastern flank.