US Lifts Iran Naval Blockade as 60-Day Nuclear Clock Begins — NPR

~2d ago · Middle East

The US lifted its blockade of Iranian ports and the Strait of Hormuz reopened after Trump and Vance signed a ceasefire agreement with Tehran, beginning a 60-day window for nuclear negotiations and resuming Iranian oil exports under sanctions relief. It marks the most significant US-Iran diplomatic breakthrough in years, though the durability of the deal is already in doubt.

Iran Nuclear Talks in Switzerland Canceled as Hezbollah Clashes Flare — Bloomberg

~12h ago · Middle East

VP Vance postponed his planned trip to Bürgenstock, Switzerland for follow-up nuclear talks with Iran after renewed Israel-Hezbollah fighting threatened the fragile ceasefire, with Iran citing Israeli military operations in Lebanon. Switzerland's Foreign Ministry confirmed the cancellation, underscoring how precarious the newly signed agreement remains.

Meloni Rebukes Trump's 'Fabricated' Story; Italy Cancels Top Diplomat's US Trip — NPR / PBS

Greater Manchester Mayor Andy Burnham won the Makerfield by-election, entering Parliament and positioning himself to formally challenge PM Keir Starmer for the Labour leadership. Starmer said he will fight any challenge, but Burnham needs the backing of just 81 Labour MPs to trigger a contest.

DHS Plans to Give Local Police ICE's Facial Recognition App — NPR

~24h ago · United States

A leaked DHS document reveals plans to equip roughly 1,300 local police agencies deputized by ICE with a mobile facial-recognition app that scans faces against 250 million government records and retains photos for 15 years. Civil liberties advocates warn the program dramatically extends immigration surveillance into routine local policing.
