A 12-hour procession through Tehran for Ayatollah Ali Khamenei — killed in a joint U.S.-Israeli airstrike on February 28 — drew an expected 15–20 million mourners in what could be the largest state funeral in Iranian history. The ceremony deepens the shadow of the ongoing U.S.-Iran war as Khamenei is set to be buried at the Imam Reza shrine in Mashhad.

Trump Says Netanyahu 'Knows Who the Boss Is' Ahead of Fraught White House Meeting — Axios

Super Typhoon Bavi, packing 180 mph sustained winds and gusts up to 215 mph, made landfall on Rota in the Northern Mariana Islands on Monday morning, with local authorities reporting 'major damages' to the island's 2,000 residents and key U.S. military installations. The storm — the third Category 5 of 2026 — is now tracking westward toward the Philippines.

Nasdaq and S&P 500 Futures Extend Rally as Dow Nears 53,000 Record — CNBC

~18h ago · Markets

U.S. stock futures climbed Monday — Nasdaq-100 futures up nearly 1% — extending last week's rally that lifted the Dow almost 2% toward record territory near 53,000. The gains come despite Friday's weak June jobs report showing only 57,000 payrolls added against a forecast of 115,000, stoking debate about the Federal Reserve's next move under new Chair Kevin Warsh.

10-Man England Beat Mexico 3–2 in Instant World Cup Classic to Reach Quarter-Finals — NBC Sports /
